

SIMPLE PAST

Simple past questions: Did + subject + infinitive

I learned English last week. Did I learn English last week?

They wanted to sing yesterday. Did they want to sing yesterday?

I phoned you yesterday. _____ you yesterday?

Susan slept well last night. _____ well last night?

They worked on Monday last week. _____ on Monday last week?

We played football this afternoon. _____ football this afternoon?

John finished his homework on time. _____ his homework on time?

They planned the holiday to France. _____ to France?

The policeman stopped the car. _____ car?

Lucy loved the new song. _____ ?

I watched the film on TV. _____ ?

Simple Past questions with was or were:

She was at the doctor. Was she at the doctor?

They were at the station. Were they at the station?

I was in London. _____ I in London?

You were in Liverpool. _____ you in Liverpool?

He was in Berlin. _____ he in Berlin?

We were in New York. _____ we in New York?

You were in Hamburg. _____ you in Hamburg?

They were in Birmingham. _____ they in Birmingham?

The book was interesting. _____ the book interesting?

The photos were in the newspaper. _____ in the newspaper?

The horse was in its stable. _____ stable?

The teachers were nice. _____?

They were at the station. _____?

Questions with 'did' or was/were

My friend was at home. _____ my friend at home?

Mr Jones called the police yesterday. _____ Mr Jones call the police yesterday?

The film was interesting. _____ interesting?

They played football in the park. _____ football in the park?

They asked many questions last time. _____ many questions?

She talked to David a week ago. _____ to David a week ago?

Peter was in the park this morning. _____ in the park this morning?

Negatives with didn't, wasn't or weren't

Dad watched TV in the living room. He _____ TV in the kitchen.

Susan played in the garden. She _____ in the park.

They were at the cinema. They _____ at the zoo.

She was happy. She _____ sad.

John and Jenny were born in January. They _____ born in February.

They walked home. They _____ to school.

Susan loved Peter. She _____ John.

You studied at school. You _____ at home.

Mum was angry. She _____ tired.

Jane cleaned the floor. She _____ the car.