

GRAMMAR 3: RELATIVE PRONOUNS

1. Choose the correct option.

- 1) That's the witness who / whose saw the murder.
- 2) Arson is a crime which / who is dangerous.
- 3) She's the girl where / whose dad is suspect.
- 4) That's the house where / which they found evidence.
- 5) They're the men where / who attacked the victim.
- 6) That's the camera which / who they stole.

2. Complete the description of a crime with where who whose or which.

Man attacked in park

Last Tuesday morning, Mr Charles Brown was the victim of a terrifying attack. Chloe Adams, (1) _____ left her house that morning to go to school, was the only witness. Miss Adams, (2) _____ home is very close to the park (3) _____ the crime took place, saw one man mugging another man. The offender had a stick (4) _____ he was hitting his victim with. Miss Adams immediately called the police on her mobile phone (5) _____ was in her bag. The police officers (6) _____ came very quickly arrested the attacker and called an ambulance. The ambulance took Mr Brown to hospital (7) _____ he received first aid. Mr Brown, (8) _____ injuries weren't serious, recovered quickly. He thanked Miss Adams for her quick action.

3. Choose the correct option.

- 1) This is the crime story which / who / where is about an imposer.
- 2) That's the police station whose / where / who the police interviewed me yesterday.
- 3) She's the woman where / whose / which husband committed credit-card fraud.
- 4) Jack is the burglar who / which / whose stole my mum's jewellery.
- 5) That's the house which / who / where was burgled.
- 6) He's the boy whose / who / which sister is a police officer.

4. Complete the text with the relative pronoun who, which, where and whose.

WANTED FOR KIDNAPPING

Police are looking for a man (1) _____ has escaped from the police station. He is tall with dark brown hair (2) _____ is very long. Do you have any information about this man? If so, please contact Police Officer Adrian Marlowe, (3) _____ telephone number is at the bottom of this poster. Please give PC Marlowe the address of the place (4) _____ you saw the man. Do not go near him - this is a man (5) _____ is very dangerous.

Police Officer A. Marlowe 07609 543 228