

*Whether you play or watch, team sports offer _____. If Team A is trying to score, Team A is playing _____. Team B is playing _____ - trying to keep Team A from scoring.

*_____ is the number one in the United States. The Super Bowl is _____. Each team tries _____ by moving the ball into the other team end zone. Every part of a football game is exciting for both _____.

*In _____, players try to score by shooting _____ through a high hoop. _____ is played _____ with a hoop at each end. _____ must know the rules well and _____. It also helps _____.

*_____ involves hitting a ball with a bat. Each year, _____ play in _____. The playing field is called _____ because of its shape.

*_____ is also popular in the USA. The World Cup is _____ tournament. Players cover _____ during the match. A soccer team has _____, who guards the net.

*_____ is played on a smooth ice rink. _____ is the championship trophy awarded each year to the winning men's team. A hockey rink is divided into _____. The neutral zone is _____. Hockey can be played _____ on frozen lakes and ponds and _____ so the ice stays frozen year round.

*_____ are a great way to learn about teamwork and fair play. _____ will help you build skills and learn the rules.