

Comparisons

Exercise 1: Compare John and Cameron. Write comparative sentences using the adjectives given each time.

John	Cameron
I'm 28	I'm 29
I have one sister but no brothers	I have three brothers and two sisters
I weigh 80 kilos	I weigh 70 kilos
I'm 1.85 meters tall	I'm 1.78 meters tall
I'm not very good at basketball	I'm a good basketball player

Example: → (young) John is younger than Cameron.

- (old) _____.
- (big family) _____.
- (heavy) _____.
- (tall) _____.
- (good) _____.

Exercise 2: Write sentences about the planets, using a superlative form.

Example: (Mercury – close – sun) → Mercury is the closest planet to the sun.

1. (Mars – near – earth) _____.
2. (Neptune – distant – from the sun) _____.
3. (Venus – hot) _____.
4. (Jupiter – large) _____.
5. (Mercury – difficult to see) _____.
6. (Saturn – second- big) _____.
7. (Uranus – cold) _____.

Exercise 3: Complete the following article about differences between men and women in London. Use the comparative or the superlative form of the adjectives in parentheses.

Women are (clean) _____ men. 60% of women, but only 42% of men take a bath or a shower every day. (clean) _____ women (7%) take a bath or a shower twice a day.

Men are (fast) _____ women. On motorways drive about 17 k.p.h. In towns about 11 k.p.h.

On average, adult men are (tall) _____ women because they usually have (long) _____ legs. (tall) _____ man in the world was Robert Wadlow. He was 2.73 meters tall. (tall) _____ woman was Zeng Jinlian, she was 2.48 meters tall.

A man's brain is (big) _____ a woman's. But long time ago man's brain was (big) _____ modern man's.

Men have (dirty) _____ hair than women. On average, women wash their hair twice a week, men only once.

Women are (honest) _____ men. 46% of men say they often do the cooking. 32% of women agree.

Married men are (healthy) _____ unmarried men.
(healthy) _____ people are unmarried women.

Men are (interested) _____ in sport than women, but women are (romantic) _____ men. 62% of women keep old love letters, and only 22% of men do.

Women are (religious) _____ men. Women over 65 are (religious) _____.

52% of men pass the driving test first time, but only 32% of women. But this doesn't mean they are (good) _____ drivers than women. In fact, (good) _____ drivers are women between 30 and 40.

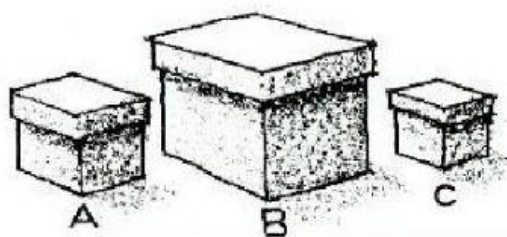

(bad) _____ drivers are young men between 18 and 25, because they're (dangerous) _____.

In general women drive (good) _____ and (carefully) _____ men.

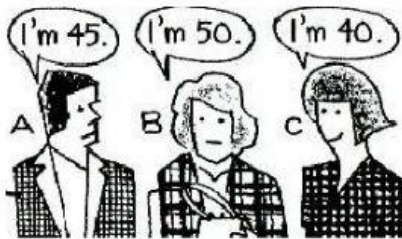

Women get up (early) _____ men and go to bed (late) _____.

Women work (hard) _____ men at home.

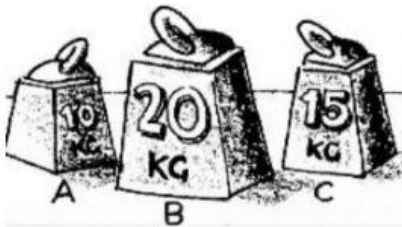

Exercise 4 (as...as): Look at the pictures and write sentences about A, B, and C.

A is bigger than C but not as big as B.

_____.

_____.

_____.

Exercise 5: Write sentences using as ... as ...

Example: Greece is older than Italy. → Italy isn't as old as Greece.

1. My car is bigger than yours. Your car isn't _____.
2. You go to bed later than me. I don't go _____.
3. They played better than you. You didn't _____.
4. He's been here longer than me. I haven't _____.
5. You're more intelligent than him. He _____.