SCHOOLS IN ENGLAND

Read the article and choose the best word.

In Britain most children start nursery school when they are 3 years (1) _____. After this they begin primary school which they go to (2) _____ they are 11. Children (3) _____ go to state primary schools then usually go to secondary schools. You must stay (4) _____ school until you are 16 when you do some important exams, called GCSE's.

If you do well in (5) _____ exams you (6) _____ continue for another 2 years specializing in three or four (7) _____. For example, English, French and German (8) _____ Maths, Physics and Chemistry. Then you do more exams called A Levels and if your (9) _____ are good you can go to University.

LIVEWORKSHEETS