My Mum

My name is Tom and I live with my mum and my sister in a small town in England. My mum works in the sports centre next to the train station. She works hard and is very popular. She teaches volleyball and football. She's also a self-defence trainer and she's got a black belt in taekwondo.

My mum has another job, too. She trains the town's football team. They are a really famous football team and they practise on the sports field every morning. Every Saturday, the team plays a match and I usually go and watch it with my sister. We enjoy going because the matches are often exciting. My mum hopes that one of her players will be in the national team next year.

Right now, my mum is at the TV studio. She is talking to a reporter about children and sport. She believes children need to exercise and playing sport is a good way to spend their free time. Mum also believes that children learn a lot from playing in teams. Being a member of a team teaches them to work together. She wants to start sports centers in every school in our town. Good luck, Mum!
