

I. Choose one correct answer.

1. We won't let you go after/until you tell us what has happened.
2. While/Immediately the accident victim is brought to hospital, he will be operated on.
3. I will have got better by the time/as long as you return from your business trip.
4. It is six months when/since you have gone to the dentist.
5. As long as/Whenever you keep silent, nothing wrong will happen to you.
6. The defender will have to be rehabilitated as/before he is allowed to play in another game.
7. Once/While the new flyover has been built, the traffic in the city center will become less congested.
8. After/As long as the storm has subsided, the rescue action will be resumed.
9. I will only feel safe when/while the blackmailer is caught and put in prison.
10. Immediately/The sooner the production is resumed, the less money the factory will lose.

II. Put the verbs in the correct form.

1. As soon as I (receive) my salary, I (pay) all the overdue bills.
2. Don't do anything until the ambulance (arrive).
3. I promise I (give) you a call immediately I (obtain) some news from the headquarters.
4. 'I'm going to France next week.' 'While you (be) in Paris, (you/buy) me a bottle of a French perfume?'
5. Why wait till five? The sooner we (go), the more time we (have) to find better seats in the stadium.
6. What (you/do) when you (retire)?
7. Once they (decorate) the stage, I (make) them arrange the chairs in the concert hall.
8. I've got a ready plan. After I (graduate) from university, I (set up) my own catering business.
9. When my brother (come) for a visit tonight, I (ask) him to fix the lamp on the wall.
10. As soon as the plane (land), its engines (inspect) by the technicians.