

Non-defining Relative Clauses

From the notes make one sentence. Use who, which or whose.

1. Greta Garbo moved to America in 1925. She was born in Sweden.

2. Football is now popular in many countries. It first started in Britain.

3. Darwin travelled to a lot of countries when he was young. His ideas changed our view of the world.

4. Margaret Thatcher studied science at university. She was the Prime Minister of Britain for 11 years.

5. Bill Clinton became President of the USA in 1993. His wife is a brilliant lawyer.

6. Michelangelo is one of Italy's greatest artists. He lived until he was 90.

7. The Nile is the longest river in Africa. It runs through several countries.

8. Gandhi became India's nationalist leader. He was born in 1869.

9. Elephants live to a great age. They are found in Africa and India.

10. Madonna is a famous American singer. Her parents were born in Italy.
