

What's the matter?

Read

Read the dialogues, then read the sentences and decide if they are true or false. (Escribe la respuesta dentro del recuadro)

Kimberly Albert, what's the matter? Are you sick?
Albert No, but I don't feel very well. I have this terrible toothache.
Kimberly Well, you should go to the dentist.
Albert Yes, I know but... I'm afraid of dentists.
Hazel Oh, come on. Take a painkiller, then.
Albert I did, but my tooth still hurts.
Kimberly Oh, Albert! You shouldn't eat all those sweets from morning to night. What do you expect? You put on weight and destroy your teeth.
Albert So, now I'm fat, too?
Hazel Kimberly's right, Albert. You shouldn't eat sweets all the time.
Albert Thank you both for your advice, but you're giving me a headache! I'm leaving!

*painkiller - analgésico, sweets – dulces,

1. Albert is sick.
2. Kimberly has a toothache.
3. Albert shouldn't go to the dentist.
4. Albert is afraid of dentists.
5. Albert didn't take a pain killer.
6. Albert eats sweets all the time.
7. Albert feels happy with the girls' pieces of advice.
