

Listen and fill in the gaps!

Jess Hi Anna!

Anna Hi Jess. Hi Harry! This is my  Gavin from Wales. He's staying with us for a couple of months.

Gavin Hi! Yeah, my mum and dad are in Ghana at the .

Harry Ghana! That's exciting. What are your mum and dad doing there?

Gavin They work for a huge aid . They often travel for their work. At the moment they're helping cocoa bean  in Ghana.

Jess So, do you like our lovely town Guildford, then?

Gavin Well, my family lives in a tiny village in Wales.

We've only got a post office, a pub and a  in my village. So this town is quite exciting!

You've got loads of great shops, a massive leisure , two cinemas, a theatre ...

Anna Yeah, it's OK, I guess. The shops are good. I use the  a lot – I borrow CDs and DVDs as well as books.

Gavin In my village there's only a mobile library. It's a small bus and it comes to our village once a week. It doesn't have any  or DVDs and the books are ancient!

Harry And the leisure centre's brilliant here. I do  every weekend and Jess and I play badminton there quite often.

Gavin Really? I'm learning how to play  at the moment. I'm not very good, though!

Jess Well, come along with us next Wednesday night!

Gavin OK, that would be great, thanks!
