READING

We usually go to the beach for our summer holidays because we love the sun and we love swimming. We all like sports. Mum and Dad play a lot of tennis, and they also go windsurfing. My brother is learning to windsurf, but Dad says I'm too young. He's teaching me tennis and I like it. On holiday we always try new sports.

Last January I heard my mum talking to my dad. 'I want to go to Rome on holiday this year,' she said. I wasn't happy, but Mum and Dad never listen to me, so we went to Rome in July. The journey was terrible. We travelled by plane, but my suitcase never arrived, so I didn't have any clothes. At Rome airport we took the wrong bus and got lost. We arrived at our hotel at midnight, and we were all very tired. On the third day someone stole Dad's camera, and he was very angry.

Rome was OK, but we visited lots of museums and old buildings, and we didn't do any sports. It wasn't a good holiday.
