

The Supermarket

6th Grade. Page 80

- ① Work with a classmate. To the right is a list of words that you will later hear in a track. Place them in the appropriate category in the table (some are extra). Then, try to guess what the track will be about.

deal	award-winning	Cheese
aisles	mayonnaise	farms
open	cheddar	deliver
samples	fry	close
early	won	homemade

Categories
Verbs	Places	Food

- ② Listen to the track twice. While listening, put the events in the correct order by placing a number from one to seven in the box. The Real Deal Store

☐	Mario introduces both himself and Christina.
☐	Erika invites them to come back tomorrow.
☐	Mario says they are visiting the town.
☐	Erika asks if they are looking for a particular item.
☐	Erika greets Mario and Christina.
☐	Erika describes the contents of the aisles.
☐	Mario asks about the cheese.

Drag Erika's chores to their correct place in her schedule. Fill out the missing lines with your own ideas.

Receive delivery of food products

Receive newspapers

Put out table with samples

Clean the store

Open the store

- 3 Erika, the clerk from The Real Deal Country Store, has to write her chores schedule. Help her organize it. To fill in the morning and midday chores, try to remember the information that you heard in the audio track. For the afternoon activities, use your imagination and assign the usual chores that a store clerk would do.

KEY WORDS

aisles sample deal syrup
homemade usual

4. Drag the correct word to fill the gaps in the sentences.

- I like maple _____ in my pancakes.
- I didn't know where the cereal was, so I had to look in all the supermarket _____.
- I had to give a blood _____ in the lab to have my tests done.
- As _____, he was right.
- Sandra's computer was so cheap! It was a good _____.
- Caro makes _____ cakes to sell.