FIND THE MISTAKE

Mrs. Neumann is writing a letter to complain about something she ordered. Some of the lines have a mistake. If a line has a mistake. It will be one of the underlined words. Write the corrections below. If there is no mistake, write no mistake.

Dear Sir:

I am writing to complain about a cut glass Christmas bell that I purchased from 1.your mail order company. I had waiting four weeks for it to arrive, so you can 2.imagine how disappointed I was when it finally arrives last week, in hundred of 3.pieces! The bell was in a box, but it had no packing around it, so it was broke.

4.If you had packed it more carefully, it must have arrived here safely. I know that 5.it may not have been your fault, but in any case I can't give this as a gift. I have 6.asking you to replace the bell immediately because I plan to give it as a present, 7.three weeks from now. I have been a faithful customer of yours for 15 years. I 8.look forward to receive my new bell before Christmas.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Newman
