

MODALS OF ABILITY

Choose the CORRECT FORM of one of the following and ask/answer questions

- Can, could, couldn't, (un)able to, manage(d) to, succeed(ed) in, could have + Past Participle

1. Tell each other about something that was difficult but that you _____ do in the end.
2. Tell each other about a time when you didn't _____ achieving or doing something you had worked hard for.
3. Choose a couple of sports or activities in which you need a bit of talent or practice, and compare, with your partner, how well you think you do them. (Use the expressions above).
4. Talk about things you're _____ do, but that others find quite easy.
5. Tell each other about something you wish you _____ do. Will it be possible for you to learn to do it at some point?
6. Tell each other about an opportunity you _____ (use the verb take) in past, but didn't. Do you regret it?
7. Talk about something you _____ do when you were younger but you _____ do now.

Before you check, make sure you have a different expression/word in each space.