

Read the following passage, and then answer the questions below:

Last week, Ahmed travelled to New York for business. After finishing his work, he decided to go back home. His flight was going to leave at nine o'clock on Monday morning. Ahmed prepared his bags and went to bed early. He set his alarm at six o'clock. Unfortunately, the battery was old and the clock stopped in the middle of the night. So he didn't wake up until seven o'clock. He didn't have time for breakfast, because he was late. He decided not to go to the airport by bus. He called a taxi but because he was in a hurry, he left his passport on the reception desk.

On the way to the airport, he realised that he had forgotten his passport and he was upset. He took a taxi to the hotel to get it. By the time he had picked up his passport, the traffic was very heavy and it took a long time to get to the airport. He ran into the terminal but it was too late. His flight has already left.
