

Subordinating Conjunctions in Complex Sentences

subordinating conjunction

When the cake is brown, remove it from the oven.

dependent clause

independent clause

subordinating conjunction

You will definitely lose if you don't try.

independent clause

dependent clause

Directions:

- Review the following complex sentences.
 - Decide if the sentence has correct comma usage or not. Write "yes" if the sentence is correct.
 - Write "no" if the sentence is incorrect.
1. When I study literature, I look for themes in the story.
 2. Identifying themes in literature is helpful if you want to deepen your comprehension of a text.
 3. Because figurative language is indirect description, readers have to infer the meaning.
 4. Readers have to infer the meaning of figurative language, because it is indirect.
 5. When you analyze a character in a story you should look for clues about their personality and motives.
 6. When you interpret a metaphor, you have to think about what is being compared.
 7. If you want to deepen your understanding of literature, pay attention to language and description.
 8. Pay attention to language and description if you want to deepen your understanding of literature.
 9. When you read literary texts on a test like the GED think about the strategies we learned in class.