Hi Bill,

Thanks for offering to help me with the party. I'm almost done with the planning. I just need to decide what food to order.

I thought about all the different options and I think we should order burgers. That way, we won't be needing dishes and everyone likes a burger, right? I've narrowed our choice to three meals:

I think the Burger Heaven meal is probably the best choice because of its 1. _____ compared to the other two options. However, I'm not sure how much we'll end up paying because we have to include 2. _____ separately. It's also great that they offer a choice of drink. The Classic York Burger also does that, but they don't include 3. _____.

I'm just worried because I know some of the guys are health conscious and might be put off by the 4. _____ Molly's special burger is a healthier option, I guess, but they don't include fries. Finally, I hope everyone likes spicy food because the burger has 5. _____ in it. Maybe we can ask them to leave it out in case anyone doesn't like them.

Let me know what you think.

Best,
Pete
