TAREA 1

Listen to six answers given by a British professor of computer science when being interviewed in Australia about the influence of government and big businesses on the internet. Match interview answers 1-6 to interview questions A-I. There are two extra interview questions that you do not need to use. When you finish, transfer your answer to the ANSWER BOX. 0 is the example.

INTERNET AND US

INTERVIEW QUESTIONS

A. Are governments and companies in favour of keeping internet open and free?

B. Do people really know about what is being done with their personal data?

C. How can we fight false information on the internet?

D. Is online shopping safe enough?

E. What kind of future do unskilled workers face when computers take over more and more jobs?

F. What role will online learning play in people's lives?

G. What was the spirit behind the internet pioneers?

H. Will online learning replace teachers?

I. Why is the internet currently at a crossroads regarding data access and control?

(Adapted from http://www.abc.net.au)

ANSWER BOX

INTERVIEW QUESTION	0	1	2	3	4	5	6
INTERVIEW ANSWER	I

Puntuación 1:_____/6