

- 1 Read what the people in column A say about their most treasured possession. What did they go on to say? Match to the sentences in column B.

A

- 1 My most treasured possession is my copy of the Quran, which I look after because it's really old. It used to belong to my great-grandfather. My father gave it to me last year.
- 2 I would say my photo of our whole family is my most treasured possession. I've had it framed and it's on my bedroom wall.
- 3 I don't think I could live without my bed! Resting and sleeping is really important to me. I don't sleep well if it's not in my own bed.
- 4 I really treasure a shell I found on a beach in the Red Sea in Egypt. My parents allowed me to go scuba-diving for the first time there and the shell reminds me of it.

B

- a I'll never forget how I felt that day in the amazing underwater world.
- b It's also somewhere I can do my homework or relax and do nothing at all.
- c I keep it on my bedside table and read a bit of it every night.
- d Some of the people in it aren't around anymore – that's why it's important.
