

Future Tenses

To talk about future, you can use the following tenses

WILL	GOING TO	PRESENT CONTINUOUS	PRESENT SIMPLE
PREDICTIONS AND FORECASTS - I think Real Madrid will win. - It will be rainy all week.	INTENTIONS - I'm going to play basketball tomorrow.	ARRANGEMENTS AND PLANS - He's flying to Milan on Tuesday.	TIMETABLES - Bus timetables - Train timetables - Movie timetables - Flight timetables The movie is at 5 o'clock.
SPONTANEOUS DECISIONS - I'll help you with the bags.	PREVIOUSLY MADE DECISIONS - We're going to go camping this summer.	- We're meeting friends on Friday.	SCHEDULED / REPEATED EVENTS - It's her birthday tomorrow. - I have an English class on Thursday.
OFFERS / PROMISES - I'll help you with your homework. - I'll see you tomorrow.	SOMETHING THAT IS VERY LIKELY - Look at those clouds. It's going to rain.	- I'm seeing a movie on Sunday afternoon.

A- FUTURE FORMS: COMPLETE THE SENTENCES WITH SIMPLE PRESENT OR PRESENT CONTINUOUS.

- The plane (arrive) arrives in London at 11:45.
- I (have) a barbecue at the weekend.
- The film (begin) at 8 o'clock.
- Sally (go) to the doctor next week.
- The train (not leave) Manchester at 7:23.
- What time (the zoo / close) ?
- We (not play) basketball tomorrow.

B- WILL OR BE GOING TO? CHOOSE THE CORRECT ALTERNATIVE IN EACH CASE

- Will you go / Are you going to go to the cinema next week?
- He won't read / isn't going to read a magazine tomorrow.
- I will see / am going to see you on Thursday.
- I think I won't travel / 'm not going to travel in ten years' time.
- We will probably land / are probably going to land on the moon in the future.
- My sister will have / is going to have a party next Saturday.
- What time will you come / are you going to come to my house tomorrow?
- Maybe he will watch / is going to watch a film.

Miss Karina