

A number is an EVEN when we can share that number of objects into two equal groups without any left over.

A number is an ODD when we can share that number of objects into two equal groups with one left over.

Choose the correct answer.

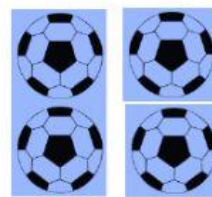

1 is an number.

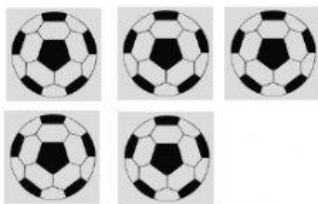

2 is an number.

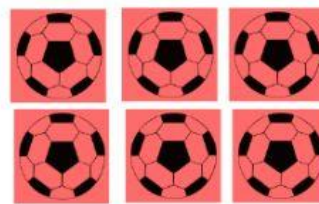

3 is an number.

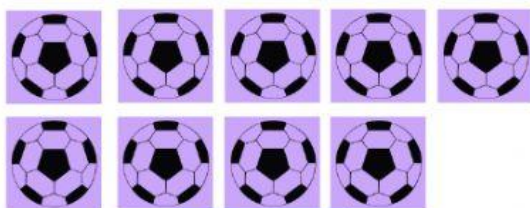

4 is an number.

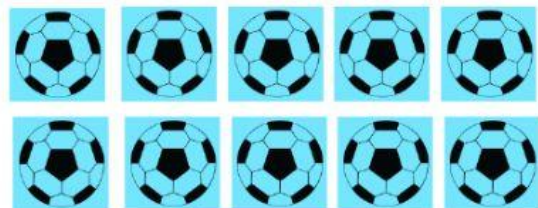

5 is an number.

6 is an number.

9 is an number.

10 is an number.