

UNIT 2: FOOD, FOOD, FOOD

LESSON 19 (Writing: a review)

(Close-up, page 27)

Exercise 2

You recently ate at a new restaurant and you were very happy with your meal.

Write a review of the restaurant for your school magazine. Give your opinion and say why you would recommend it to others. (100 words)

Guidelines:

1. Introduce the restaurant (name, location, how do you know?)
2. Describe the meal you ate? (what food you ate, how was the taste? How was the food presented?)
3. Give other details about the restaurant (waiters, environment / ambiance, interior decorations)
4. End the review (summary of your feelings). Say why you would recommend it (give reasons).

Fill in the blanks with appropriate nouns, verbs or adjectives.

Sandy's Café: a good option for a quick lunch

My classmate and I decided to try out this new café near our school on Tuesday after extra classes.

The name of the place is Sandy's Café.

The staff gave us a warm welcome. We asked about the ingredients of the 1) _____ because my friend can't have anything with nuts in, and they were helpful. The waitress 2) _____ a curry pasta salad and I went for a toasted sandwich. Unfortunately, that was off the 3) _____, so I had a pepperoni pizza instead.

The food 4) _____ fast! The pizza was 5) _____. My classmate liked his curry pasta salad too but it was quite 6) _____ for him. The 7) _____ for both of us came to RM30 including the 8) _____ charge, which we thought was reasonable.

Sandy's Café is a great place for students like us as the price is 9) _____. I'll be back to 10) _____ that toasted sandwich some time.
