

Read the passage and then answer the following questions:

Living things

Our world is filled with tons of living things. Our pets, flowers and even you are a living thing. Living things grow over time. They also need food, water and sunlight to survive. Living things must also have air. If a living thing doesn't have these things, it will die. Next time you are outside, take a look around at all the living things.

Circle the correct answer

1. The title of this passage is _____.

- a. non-living things b. living things c. water

2. Living things don't need _____.

- a. water b. sunlight c. money

3. Which one is a living thing?

- a. book b. kitten c. door

4. What will happen if a living thing doesn't have water?

- a. it will buy some b. it will be fine c. it will die