Andrew Lane writes books for young people.

He is famous in Britain and the USA. He is the writer of the Young Sherlock Holmes detective stories.

In Andrew's stories, the famous detective Sherlock Holmes is a teenager. He goes to school and he likes boxing and music. He is learning to play the violin and he is good at Science. Fourteen-year-old Sherlock is already a clever detective. He solves cases like murders and robberies. In the first book, Death Cloud, he lives with his aunt in England. He solves his first murder with his friend, Matty Arnatt. In the second book, Red Leech, young Sherlock goes to the USA.

Andrew Lane takes six months to write each story. There are already six books. He wants to write another three books. He is also the writer of books about the famous time traveller, Dr Who. Andrew Lane is a very good writer and his books are exciting to read!
