A housewife's life is very stressful – or is it?

Many people think that housewives have a very stressful life. We ask two, Moira and Eve, about their typical day.

Moira from Scotland.

"I get up at 7.30 and I make the breakfast for my children. Then I take them to school and I go to the supermarket and buy food and things for the house. When I go back home I make the beds and clean the house. I have a shower before I pick up the children from school at four o'clock. In the evening we have dinner and watch television. I go to bed at 10.30 because I'm tired."

Eve from England.

"I get up at 10 o'clock and have fruit and orange juice for breakfast. Then I take a bath and at 11.30 I meet my friends in the city centre. First, we have a coffee and then we go shopping. We usually have lunch at about one o'clock in a restaurant in town. In the afternoon we sometimes go to the gym. When I go back home, I usually have a drink with my husband.
