

Name:

Date:

Passage 1

'THE PERFECT CUP OF COCOA'

The perfect cup of cocoa
Is rich and chocolaty,
And always warm, but not too hot –
A steaming chocolate sea.

Covering the surface is
A thick marshmallow mound,
Which melts into a gooey cloud
Without the slightest sound.

A whipped cream swirl extends beyond
The surface of the cup,
And chocolate sprinkles add
The perfect touch to dress it up.

The perfect cup of cocoa
Is like an old best friend –
It's warm; it's sweet; it's such a treat
And yummy till the end.

By Barbara Vance
Adapted by: The GLAT Team 2019

1. According to the poet, what are THREE things that make cocoa the best drink? [3]
2. Why does the marshmallow become a gooey cloud? [1]
3. Shade in the correct letter. What is the mood that is created with the poet's use of sensory details throughout the poem? [1]
A. anxiety      B. boredom      C. relief      D. satisfaction
4. Read the lines from the poem.
'A whipped cream swirl extends beyond the surface of the cup'
Shade in the correct letter next to the answer. If you were to draw a picture to represent these words, which of the following might that picture look like? [1]
A. A picture of an extra-large cup of cocoa.
B. A picture of a cup of cocoa that is extremely delicious
C. A picture of a cup of cocoa that has a heavy white topping.
D. A picture of a cup of cocoa that is very pretty.
5. Read the lines from the last verse of the poem and then answer questions (a) & (b).
The perfect cup of cocoa Is like an old best friend -It's warm; it's sweet; it's such a treat And yummy till the end.
5 (a) What figurative language is used in this line of the poem?[1]