WORKSHEET: "A fantastic city"

NAME: Grade: 4 - A _ B _ C _ D Date:

I. INSTRUCTIONS: read the text silently using the skimming and scanning techniqueA FANTASTIC CITY

Cajamarca is located in the northern highlands of Peru. It is the capital of Cajamarca region and it has an equatorial climate. It is mild, dry and sunny which creates fertile soil. The city is well-known for its cheese and dairy products. Cajamarca is also known for its beautiful churches and hot springs or Inca baths. Most of all Peruvians remember Cajamarca as the place where the Inca Empire came to an end because it was here where the battle of Cajamarca, the capture, abuse and murder of the Inca Emperor Atahualpa took place. Cajamarca also has several mining sites in surrounding areas, for example Yanacocha which is the largest gold producer in Latin America. Its production has exceeded 26 million ounces since the mine opened in 1993. Just 6 miles away from the city of Cajamarca, a lot of work has been done to build roads and improve the basic infrastructure for the operation in the area. Other popular places to visit are: Llacanora waterfalls, Saint Apollonian hill, Cumbemayo, archeological sites, La Colpa and Porcón farm among others. Finally, Cajamarca is a very important city in Peru due to it is full of history, industry and nature
