

THERE IS / THERE ARE

There is	a (an)	car in the street.
There are	(two three four)	cars in the street.

There aren't any cars in the street.
There aren't (two) cars in the street. There are (three) cars in the street.

Is there	a	car in the street ?
 Are there	(two)	cars is the street ?

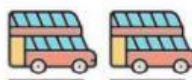

Yes, there is. No, there isn't.
Yes, there are. No, there aren't.

There is = « there's »

There are = « there are » does not have a contraction form

Use IS/ARE to complete the sentences.

There ____ a bus in the street

There ____ two buses in the street.

There ____ a taxi in front of the museum.

There ____ taxis in front of the museum.

There ____ trains in the station.

There ____ an underground station near my house.

There ____ three bikes in the garage.

Choose the correct option

There is are twelve double deckers.

There is are a taxi.

There is are three bikes.

There is are cars.

There is are a motorbike.

There is are five scooters.

Look at the picture and say if the sentences are True or false

eBoy, London, 2005

There is a yellow taxi in front of 'Prêt à manger'.	True	False
There are two cars with the British flag on their roof.	True	False
There is a brown car in front of the Queen.	True	False
There is the underground next to the river	True	False
There is a red bike behind the orange van.	True	False
There are five people swimming in the river.	True	False
There is a double decker bus next to the Paul Smith shop	True	False
There are three bikes in this picture	True	False
There is one skateboard on the pavement.	True	False
There is a black taxi on the bridge.	True	False

Write the question in the correct order.

a /the picture ?/ double decker bus / there/ in / Is there / the museum ? / taxis / Are / next to /

Is / a / train station / ? / the / city center / there / near pavement / there / Are / on / the / ? / scooters /

Is / your / city / ? / Underground / in / there / the

