

JAMAICAN PROVERBS & THEIR MEANING

Draw lines to match each Jamaican Proverb with its meaning.

PROVERBS

One, one coco full basket ●

Blood ticka dan wata ●

What sweet nanny goat
ago run eeh belly ●

Cockroach nuh business
inna fowl fight ●

Chicken merry, hawk deh near ●

Cyaan catch Quako,
cyatch him shut ●

Every dawg has his day
and every puss his 4
o'clock ●

MEANINGS

● Danger lurks nearby when
there is too much merriment and excitement.

● if you can't get a hold of a person then you take out
your anger on those close
to him.

● Today for me, tomorrow
for you

● The bond between blood
relatives is very strong.

● every little bit adds up

● That which appears too
good, can hurt you.

● Don't get involved in things that don't concern you.