PRESENT PERFECT TENSE EXERCISES

A. Match the questions with the answers.

1. Where are my keys?	A) Her car has broken down.
2. What are you looking for in the drawer?	B) Haven't you heard? He's had an accident.
3. Why does Helen need to call a mechanic?	C) A plaster. I've cut my finger.
4. Why don't you go to bed? It's 2 a.m.	D) Because someone has stolen my old one.
5. Where is Jim? I can't see him.	E) I know, but I haven't finished my report yet.
6. Why are you buying a new phone?	F) I don't know. I haven't seen them anywhere.

B. Fill in the gaps using present perfect tense.

1. Bill …….. (be) here since the 22nd.
2. I …….(have) two tests and a quiz so far this week.
3. Greg is an artist. He……(draw) many beautiful pictures in his lifetime.
4. Carol ……(wear) her new blue dress only twice since she bought it.
5. I ……(know) Jack for five years.
6. She ……(send) two text messages since this morning.
7. They ……(fly) to Berlin for a business trip.
8. We ……..(buy) four books since the beginning of the term.

C. Complete the sentences with for or since.

1. My brother's been in New York …… four years.
2. We've had our goldfish …….. six months.
3. I've played in this band …….. March.
4. I've lived in this city …….. I was born.
5. There have been strange objects in the sky …… three nights.
6. Serena has had a toothache …… Saturday.
7. I've had this mobile phone …….. ages.
8. We've known each other …… 2017.

D. Choose the correct word.

1. Daisy: Let's go and see the new Star Wars film.
   Nick: Great idea! I haven't seen it just / yet / already.
2. Tom: What's the matter?
   Paul: I've just / yet / already dropped a box on my toe and it hurts.
3. Adam: Do you want to borrow this magazine?
   Rachel: No, thanks. I've just / yet / already read it. I read it last week.
4. Noa: You look pale!
   Mel: I think I've just / yet / already seen a ghost!
5. Dad: Turn off the TV! You should go to bed.
   Child: But the film hasn't finished just / yet / already.

LIVEWORKSHEETS