PRESENT PERFECT TENSE EXERCISES

A. Match the questions with the answers.

- 1. Where are my keys?
- 2. What are you looking for in the drawer?
- 3. Why does Helen need to call a mechanic?
- 4. Why don't you go to bed? It's 2 a.m.
- 5. Where is Jim? I can't see him.
- 6. Why are you buying a new phone?

- A) Her car has broken down.
- B) Haven't you heard? He's had an accident.
- C) A plaster. I've cut my finger.
- D) Because someone has stolen my old one.
- E) I know, but I haven't finished my report yet.
- F) I don't know. I haven't seen them anywhere.

B. Fill in the gaps using present perfect tense.

- 1. Bill (be) here since the 22nd.

- Carol(wear) her new blue dress only twice since she bought it.
- 5. I(know) Jack for five years.
- 6. She(send) two text messages since this morning.
- They(fly) to Berlin for a business trip.
- We(buy) four books since the beginning of the term.

C. Complete the sentences with for or since.

- 1. My brother's been in New York four years.
- 2. We've had our goldfish six months.
- 3. I've played in this band March.
- 4. I've lived in this city I was born.
- 5. There have been strange objects in the sky three nights.
- Serena has had a toothache Saturday.
- 7. I've had this mobile phone ages.
- 8. We've known each other 2017.

D. Choose the correct word.

- 1. Daisy: Let's go and see the new Star Wars film.
 - Nick: Great idea! I haven't seen it just / yet / already.
- Tom: What's the matter?
 - Paul: I've just / yet / already dropped a box on my toe and it hurts.
- 3. Adam: Do you want to borrow this magazine?
 - Rachel: No, thanks. I've just / yet / already read it. I read it last week.

- 4. Noa: You look pale!
 - Mel: I think I've just / yet / already seen a ghost!
- 5. Dad: Turn off the TV! You should go to bed.
 - Child: But the film hasn't finished just / yet / already.