

|              |          |          |            |
|--------------|----------|----------|------------|
| Prescription | nauseous | pregnant | precaution |
| Dizzy        | nursing  | exceed   | dosage     |
| Recommended  | ointment | drowsy   |            |

Match the words above with their definitions.

|  |                                                           |
|--|-----------------------------------------------------------|
|  | Feeling like you have to vomit or throw up                |
|  | A kind of medical cream used on your skin                 |
|  | To be more than                                           |
|  | Mothers breastfeeding their children                      |
|  | Suggested                                                 |
|  | Expecting a baby                                          |
|  | The amount of medication to take                          |
|  | Feeling like everything is turning or spinning            |
|  | Being careful so something bad doesn't happen             |
|  | A doctor's instructions about the medication or treatment |
|  | Sleepy                                                    |