

Read the idioms and choose the correct meaning below.

1

He is in the driver's seat because no one wants to be the manager.

- a He is in charge of the company.
- b He is the company's driver.
- c He likes driving cars.

I am driving!

2

There are technical problems with our new product, but they're just a bump in the road. I'm sure we'll solve the problem quickly.

- a They need to try the new product on the road.
- b They have serious problems with a new product.
- c They are facing a problem that can easily be solved.

3

He is always complaining about the traffic but we're all in the same boat. It is a very busy city.

- a There are lots of boats in the city.
- b They have a problem with the traffic.
- c They sail on a boat when it is busy in the city.

All in the Same Boat

