

WRITE THE LETTER OF THE CORRECT ANSWER

1. When is sound made?
  - A. When object travels in space
  - B. When the object hits another object
  - C. When an object moves back and forth
  - D. When there is air around

2. Which is NOT true about the sound?
  - A. Sound is produced by vibrating objects
  - B. Sound travels like waves in all directions
  - C. Sound has same intensity in liquids
  - D. Sound cannot travel in a vacuum

3. Sound cannot travel in a vacuum because _____
  - A. there are empty spaces
  - B. sound will bounce in a vacuum
  - C. it has many molecules
  - D. of the absence of molecules

4. Where do sounds travel the fastest?

A. Air	B. wood	C. water	D. vacuum
--------	---------	----------	-----------

5. Which of the following cannot cause hearing problems?
  - A. Listening to the radio in full volume
  - B. Playing soft music
  - C. Shouting at somebody else's ears
  - D. Playing with toys that produce sounds

6. Why do you make sounds when you talk?
  - A. Your ears vibrate when you talk
  - B. You vocal cords in the throat vibrate
  - C. Your voice vibrates when you talk
  - D. Air vibrates when you talk

7. Which of the following materials will you place in a floor to reduce noise in the floor?

A. Cement flooring	B. wood	C. rug	D. tiles
--------------------	---------	--------	----------

8. Your mother yells at you while you are playing in the yard. How is it possible that you can hear her even if she is far away?
  - A. The sound of her voice travels through the air
  - B. Her voice is soft and has a high pitch
  - C. The sound of her voice is reflected by the tree
  - D. Her voice is soft and has low pitch

9. Who among the pupils produce the loudest sound?
  - A. Dom drops a coin on a towel
  - B. Liam drops a coin in the pond
  - C. Mark drops a coin in the carpet
  - D. Liam drops a coin on a cemented floor

10. In which of the following places will Bea hear the echo of her voice when she shouts?

A. Underwater	B. In a cave	C. On a tree	D. In a playground
---------------	--------------	--------------	--------------------