

Climate

KEY ■ hot climate ■ temperate climate ■ cold climate

Climate measures TEMPERATURE, HUMIDITY, WIND and PRECIPITATION and it has to be repeated for a long period of time.

There are three main climate zones on Earth

Cold climate

Low temperatures all year round.

Temperate climate

Four seasons: summers are warm and winters are cold.

Hot climate

High temperatures all year round.

1. What does the climate measures?

2. Write true or false.

Climate is measured for a long period of time. _____

Climate only measures weather. _____

Climate is measured for a short period of time. _____

3. Match the sentences with the type of climate.

COLD CLIMATE

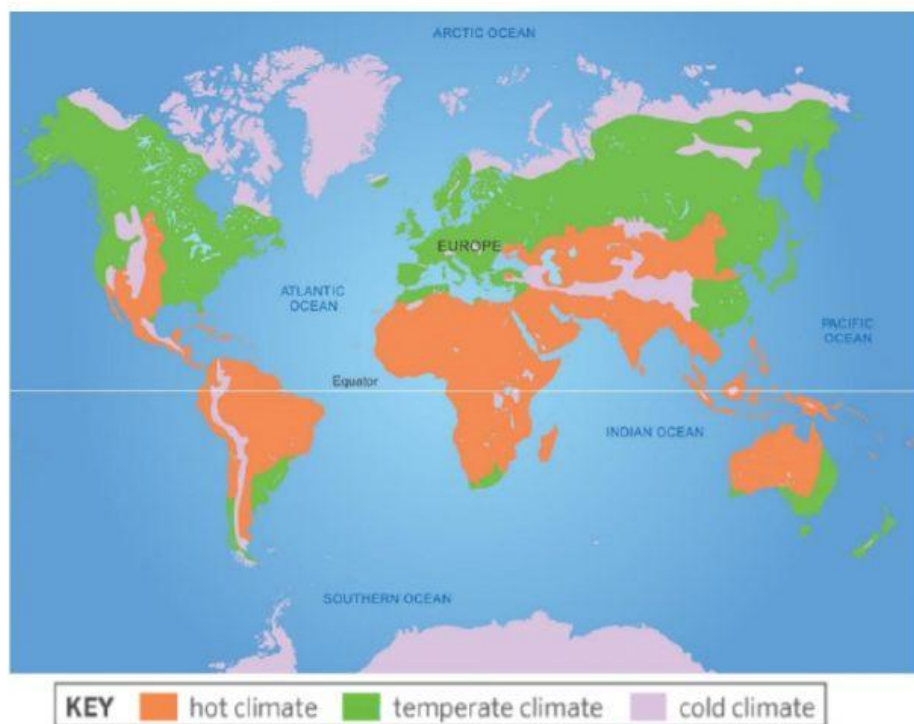

Four seasons: summers are warm and winters are cold.

TEMPERATE CLIMATE

High temperatures all year round.

HOT CLIMATE

Low temperatures all year round.

4. Look at the map and answer.

What is the main climate of Europe? _____

What is the climate of Africa? _____

What is the climate in the South and North Poles? _____

What are the climates in Australia? _____