I am going to write about Windsor and tell you why I like living here with my family. I live in Windsor Ontario. It's on the border with USA which makes it closer to cross the border for shopping and events. Also, I can visit my family that live in Michigan. I was born in Windsor many years ago and yes, it's a small city but it's very clean and quiet. There are many beautiful trails for me to walk my dog. Devonshire Conservation is just one of the many amazing dog-friendly places to go. Windsor's people are so friendly. Everyone is helpful and says hello whenever there is a chance. The neighborhoods are friendly too and each one has a little community park where children can play. Windsor is a great place for young families and growing families.
