

A Camel

A camel (live) _____ in the desert. It is a very special animal and it is called “the ship of the desert”, because a camel (run) _____ very fast on the sand. A camel (have) _____ flat wide feet so it (not sink) _____ in the sand. A camel (have) _____ one or two humps. A camel (eat) _____ grass, grains, seeds, twigs and even plants with thorns and it (drink) _____ a lot of water at one time. A camel (have) _____ thick lips which allows it to eat the thorny plants without getting hurt. A camel can go without water or food for several days because the hump (store) _____ fat. It (have) _____ two rows of eyelashes and three sets of eyelids to protect them from the sand.