

First Conditional PRACTICE 2

Complete these sentences. Add a comma where you need it, and use “may” or “might” if the result is not definite. If it is definite use “will”.

1. If you _____ (sleep) with the window open__ you _____ (sleep) much better.
2. Your teeth _____ (stay) healthy__ if you _____ (visit) the dentist often.
3. You _____ (expect) to lose up to 15 kg a year__ if you _____ (eat) less every day.
4. If you _____ (thank) him in his language__ he _____ (appreciate) it.
5. If you _____ (not drive) fast__ you _____ (not, get) a speeding ticket.
6. You _____ (have) bad dreams__ if you _____ (eat) cheese before bedtime.

PRACTICE 3

Complete these sentences with your own ideas. Add a comma where you need it, and make sure you have “if” or “when” in each sentence.

1. If you look suspicious
2. If she assumes that college is easy
3. He will impress his boss
4. Your coach might make you captain of the team
5. If he continues to exaggerate to everyone around him
6. If Ali demonstrates good study habits at school