

Phrases with the prepositions

---

To be _____, I don't think it is a good idea

My parents were rather _____ that I hadn't done my homework

Some parents get very _____ at the inability to control their children

My sister has got a very _____ skin

Он показался мне разумным человеком. I found him a _____ man.

Phrasal Verbs COME and FALL

---

Have you ever come _____ such a horrible person in all your life?

He fell _____ Jane when they were together at a music camp.

Luca comes _____ Italy.

My sister is falling _____ with her school work.

Mark has come _____ with a new idea for our product.

She was twenty when she first fell _____ love.

Causative clauses

---

Fred hasn't washed his car himself.

Fred has had his car washed.

Fred had his car washed.

Tim didn't clean the windows himself.

Tim had the windows cleaned.

Tim had cleaned the windows.

Jane won't service her car herself.

They will have the roof of the house mended. They want to have the roof of the house mended.

My husband isn't testing his eye-sight himself.

My husband has his eye-sight tested.

My husband is having his eye-sight tested.

We don't X-ray our chests ourselves.

We have our chests X-rayed.

We had our chests X-rayed.

Fixed expressions with the preposition ON

---

_____, he wasn't hopeless.

on the whole

on my mind

on strike

You should stop your car _____ of the police officer.

on the trail

on demand

on impulse

He will be _____ from 8 am till 8 pm tomorrow.

on arrival

on impulse

on duty

You look anxious. What's _____?

on your mind

on a campsite

on balance

The driver will meet you _____.

on demand

on arrival

on a journey

Our flight was postponed _____ bad weather conditions.

on account of

on order

on the trail of