1. Answer the questions as the example. Use too, enough, too much or too many.

Why didn't you buy the car? (expensive) Because it was too expensive.

Why didn't you see your friends? (people) _____

Why couldn't you come to the party? (time) _____

Why didn't you come to the cinema with us? (tired) _____

Why are there so many road accidents? (cars) _____

2. A) Match the phrasal verb with the definition

1. Get on with someone
2. Get over an illness or bad experience
3. Get into somewhere
4. Get away with something
5. Get on a bus/train
6. Get off a bus/train
7. Get round someone
8. Get up to something bad
9. Get into trouble
10. Get someone down

a.	Enter a bus, or train
b.	Leave a bus or train
c.	Persuade or convince someone to do something
d.	Have a good relationship with someone
e.	manage to enter somewhere
f.	Do something (naughty)
g.	Be told off because of your actions
h.	Recover from
i.	Make someone depressed
j.	Do something bad and not get caught

B) Read through the story and see if you can remember which verbs from A go in each gap.

I _____ my cousin Charlie. The problem is I don't _____ his Kids. He is a single parent. They always _____ something as soon as your back is turned. But they never _____ trouble, they always _____ it. They are very clever! Anyway, Charlie came to visit. He said being a single parent _____ him _____. I said he should _____ more. I offered to baby-sit while he went out. Big mistake! They asked me to take them to the zoo. I refused because it's so expensive, but they managed to _____ me. They always know how to _____ me, I'm too soft! So we all _____ the bus, and _____ in front of the zoo. I told them to meet me at the café in one hour. Don't _____ anything! I said. The zoo was very peaceful. The peace lasted about ten minutes. Suddenly there were people shouting, screaming, police sirens. The Kids. Yes, they had managed to _____ the lion's enclosure and the lions had escaped. Unfortunately the kids fell into the pool and got pneumonia. The doctor said they would soon _____ the illness. I don't think I will ever get over the experience.

3. Future tenses: Present Continuous, Will Future and Going to Future. Fill in the right form.

a) George and I _____ (get) married next month. We would like to invite you to the wedding.

b) They are going to the beach because they _____ (sunbathe).

c) Next year, the prices _____ (be) higher than this year.

d) I have got my camera here because I _____ (take) some photos.

e) Peter _____ (take) the plane tomorrow at 8.00.

f) I can't talk now. I _____ (phone) you later.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

4. Form first conditional sentences and under each picture write the correct sentence number.

_____ _____ _____ _____ _____

1) If we _____ (recycle) more, we _____ (help) our planet.

2) If people _____ (share) their cars to go to work, there _____ (not be) so many fumes.

3) We _____ (save) thousand of trees if we _____ (not waste) so much paper.

4) If the government _____ (fine) those who pollute the atmosphere, some factories _____ (stop) throwing waste into rivers.

5) If we only _____ (use) water we need, we _____ (contribute) to our planet's recovery.

5. Choose the most appropriate ending for the following sentences:

a) If we keep polluting our planet, _____

b) If we use recycled paper and glass, _____

c) Children will be aware of the importance of recycling _____

d) If you have a shower instead of a bath, _____

e) If the environmental issues are taught at school, _____

6. Shopping. Fill in the dialogue with the appropriate words.

DO THEY FIT?	SIZE ARE	YOU ARE	OF COURSE	JUST LOOKING	TAKE THEM
ARE PERFECT	TRY THESE	TRY THESE ONES ON		A BIGGER SIZE	TOO SMALL

Shop assistant: Hello! Can I help you?

Customer: No, thank you. I'm _____.

A little later

Customer: Can _____shoes on, please?

Shop assistant: _____.

A little later

Shop assistant: _____?

Customer: No, they are _____. Have you got _____?

Shop assistant: What _____you?

Customer: 40.

Shop assistant: Here _____. _____.

Customer: They _____. I'll _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS