Sometimes we're on a collision course, and we just don't know it. Whether it's by accident or by design, there's not a thing we can do about it:

*A woman in Paris _____ (be) on her way to go shopping, but _____ (forget) her coat - went back to get it. When she _____ (get) her coat, the phone _____ (ring), so she'd stopped to answer it; talked for a couple of minutes.

* While the woman _____ (be) on the phone, Daisy _____ (rehearse) for a performance at the Paris Opera House. And while she _____ (rehearse), the woman, off the phone now, _____ (go) outside to get a taxi.

* Now a taxi driver _____ (drop off) a fare earlier and _____ (stop) to get a cup of coffee. And all the while, Daisy _____ (rehearse). And this cab driver, who dropped off the earlier fare; who _____ (stop) to get the cup of coffee, _____ (pick up) the lady who was going to shopping, and _____ (miss) getting an earlier cab.

* The taxi _____ (have) to stop for a man crossing the street, who _____ (leave) for work five minutes later than he normally _____ (do), because he _____ (forget) to set off his alarm. While that man, late for work, _____ (cross) the street, Daisy _____ (finish) rehearsing, and _____ (take) a shower. And while Daisy _____ (shower), the taxi _____ (wait) outside a boutique for the woman to pick up a package, which hadn't been wrapped yet, because the girl who was supposed to wrap it _____ (break up) with her boyfriend the night before, and _____ (forget).

*When the package was wrapped, the woman, who _____ (be) back in the cab, was blocked by a delivery truck, all the while Daisy _____ (get dressed). The delivery truck _____ (pull away) and the taxi was able to move, while Daisy, the last to be dressed, _____ (wait) for one of her friends, who _____ (break) a shoelace.

*While the taxi was stopped, waiting for a traffic light, Daisy and her friend _____ (come) out the back of the theater. And if only one thing had happened differently.....

2 Use the prompts to make sentences using third conditional saying what it would have saved Daisy from the car accident shoelace break - delivery truck move moments earlier - package wrap and ready - the girl break up with her boyfriend - man set his alarm and get up five minutes earlier - taxi driver stop for a cup of coffee - woman remembered her coat and get into an earlier cab - Daisy and her friend cross

But life being what it is - a series of intersecting lives and incidents, out of anyone's control - that taxi did not go by, and that driver was momentarily distracted, and that taxi hit Daisy, and her leg was crushed."

"Sometimes we're on a collision course, and we just don't know it. Whether it's by accident or by design, there's not a thing we can do about it. A woman in Paris was on her way to go shopping, but she had forgotten her coat - went back to get it. When she had gotten her coat, the phone had rung, so she'd stopped to answer it; talked for a couple of minutes. While the woman was on the phone, Daisy was rehearsing for a performance at the Paris Opera House. And while she was rehearsing, the woman, off the phone now, had gone outside to get a taxi. Now a taxi driver had dropped off a fare earlier and had stopped to get a cup of coffee. And all the while, Daisy was rehearsing. And this cab driver, who dropped off the earlier fare; who'd stopped to get the cup of coffee, had picked up the lady who was going to shopping, and had missed getting an earlier cab. The taxi had to stop for a man crossing the street, who had left for work five minutes later than he normally did, because he forgot to set off his alarm. While that man, late for work, was crossing the street, Daisy had finished rehearsing, and was taking a shower. And while Daisy was showering, the taxi was waiting outside a boutique for the woman to pick up a package, which hadn't been wrapped yet, because the girl who was supposed to wrap it had broken up with her boyfriend the night before, and forgot.

When the package was wrapped, the woman, who was back in the cab, was blocked by a delivery truck, all the while Daisy was getting dressed. The delivery truck pulled away and the taxi was able to move, while Daisy, the last to be dressed, waited for one of her friends, who had broken a shoelace. While the taxi was stopped, waiting for a traffic light, Daisy and her friend came out the back of the theater. And if only one thing had happened differently: if that shoelace hadn't broken; or that delivery truck had moved moments earlier; or that package had been wrapped and ready, because the girl hadn't broken up with her boyfriend; or that man had set his alarm and got up five minutes earlier; or that taxi driver hadn't stopped for a cup of coffee; or that woman had remembered her coat, and got into an earlier cab, Daisy and her friend would've crossed the street, and the taxi would've driven by. But life being what it is - a series of intersecting lives and incidents, out of anyone's control - that taxi did not go by, and that driver was momentarily distracted, and that taxi hit Daisy, and her leg was crushed."
