

Listen and do the activity below.

TRUE OR FALSE	SENTENCES	IF THE SENTENCE IS FALSE PLEASE WRITE THE CORRECT VERSION OF THE SENTENCE.
	Before starting the book review, she warns: I will give a spoiler.
	Before you readers dive into the book yourself, the narrator wants to give a few details.
	According to the narrator, as you get to know the characters in the story, you understand that the characters are complex.
	The narrator argues: The more you get to know the characters in the book, the better you understand why there should be such a character in the book.
	The narrator thinks the characters in the story are pretty simple at first.
	There is no dynamic relationship between Julia and Winston.
	According to the narrator, when society and government come together, it becomes a great mass.
	When you combine all the characters and elements in the book, a wonderful storyline of the book is created.
	The book does not take you away and surprise you as you expect, says the narrator.
	While reading the book, you must be open mind.
	Nobody recommended this book to the narrator. He discovered it himself.
	The narrator says she tried to analyze all the chapters in the book.

