

QUIZ 8TH

COMPARATIVES AND SUPERLATIVES- VOCABULARY

1 Read and circle the correct image according to the description. (___/5)

Agnes has to pick a friend of her sister up in a coffee shop in order to take her to a party, the description her sister told her is this:

Susan, my friend, likes jeans, but when she goes to parties she prefers skirts. She doesn't like belts, or sweaters, but sometimes she has to use them when the weather is cold. She almost never wears jewelry or accessories although she really loves sunglasses. She is going to take the coat and the scarf I gave her as a birthday present last week. She's going to wait for you outside the coffee shop, with her bike, that's for sure!

Read and circle the mistakes. Write the correct word.

Which is ~~more big~~, New York or London? New York has a biggest population, but both cities have a largest cultural influence. They are two of the importantest financial centers in the world. That could change in the future, though. Right now, seven of the ten large cities in the world are in southern or southeastern Asia. Two countries, China and India, have a great population than the next 20 countries combined! Biggest city of them all, though, is Tokyo, Japan, with almost 37 million people! For some people, so much business and entertainment can be excitingest, but others couldn't imagine anything worst!

0. bigger	1.	2.	3.
4.	5.	6.	7.

Write comparisons.

o. Rabbit / small / dog

1. China's population / amazing / of all Asia

2. The traffic in London / not annoying / Mexico City

3. Public transportation / Canada / useful / of North America

School Cafeteria
Ice cream	$1.50
Hamburger	$2.50
Milkshake	$1.75
Milk	$0.75
Orange juice	$1.00
Apple	$0.50
Soda	$0.80
Chicken	$5.00
Cookie	$0.25
Candy	$0.35

3 Look at the menu and mark the sentences T (true) or F (false).

- o. Chicken is the most expensive food on the menu. _____
1. Orange juice is the cheapest drink on the menu. _____
2. The milkshake is the most expensive drink. _____
3. Candy is the healthiest option on the menu. _____
4. The cookie is the cheapest dessert. _____
5. Ice cream is the most expensive dessert. _____
- 6 Soda is the healthiest drink. _____