

Finding your way

Yesterday, I _____ the airport. I decided to use side roads and go _____ the village of Pensford, but I took the wrong _____ just before I got there, and I _____ in a supermarket car park. Fortunately I was able to _____ someone _____, and a very kind woman _____ me to the A38, where I could then follow _____ for the airport.

1 didn't know where I was

2 while I was going to (the airport)

3 go through somewhere to get to a destination

4 corner where one road meets another

5 found myself in a place I didn't expect to be in

6 ask how to get to a place

7 told me how to get to a place

An accident

I saw an _____ this morning on the _____ into town. A _____ – a young boy – stepped off the _____ and into the road just as a car was _____. The driver _____, but the car _____ and _____ a _____ on the opposite side of the road. Fortunately the driver wasn't _____ but both cars were quite badly _____.

1 important road

2 a person walking

3 the place where pedestrians walk

4 coming closer

5 put his foot on the brake to stop the car

6 changed direction suddenly and without control

7 a car next to the pavement, not moving

