

Narrative Writing

Prompt

Pretend you found a time machine. Write about your adventure with the machine. Use narrative elements in your writing.

*Paragraph 1- Introduction

State your choice and your three definite reasons for your choice.

Paragraph 2-Reason 1

*Paragraph 3-Reason 2

Paragraph 4-Reason 3

Paragraph 5-Closing

Restate your choice and the three reasons
(HINT: you can use the topic sentence from paragraphs 2,3, and 4.) Appeal to the reader in one final sentence.

Use the checklist to edit your writing.

Punctuation	Each sentence has ending punctuation.
	I read this piece of writing aloud to see where to stop or pause for periods, exclamation marks, questions marks, and commas.
	Lists of three or more items contain commas. (Example: For breakfast I ate an apple, banana, and mango.)
Capital Letters	Quotation marks are used when someone is speaking. (Example: She said, "I love ice cream!")
	Each sentence begins with a capital letter. Proper nouns begin with capital letters. (Example: Henry, San Francisco, Disneyland)
Grammar	Each sentence is a complete thought and contains a subject and predicate.
	I corrected run-on sentences by adding punctuation or conjunctions with commas.
Spelling	I circled words that were spelled incorrectly or words I wasn't sure about. (Hint: Use a dictionary or computer to find the correct spelling of circled words.)
	I checked the commonly misspelled words list and made corrections.

[illegible]

[illegible]