

Types of Text. Match the picture to the description

Picture		Description
		This tells you how to take medicine.
		We need this if we want to see a film.
		You write this before you go to the supermarket to help you remember what to buy.
		This tells you how much something costs in a shop.
		You need this to travel on a train.
		This tells you what is inside your food and how much food there is.
		You need this to travel on a bus.
		You get this after you buy something in a shop.
		This tells us what we can eat in a restaurant.
		The person who wrote this wants you to buy something from them.
		This is a short message to give information to a friend.