

Put the events in chronological order.

Franco appointed Prince Juan Carlos to replace him.

King Juan Carlos I began the transition to democracy

Adolfo Suárez was appointed as Prime Minister.

Spain voted in favour of the Constitution.

The first democratic elections in 40 years were held.

Spain officially entered the Eurozone.

The elected political parties created a new constitution.

Spain entered the EEC, which later became the European Union.

Spain joined the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO).

 LIVEWORKSHEETS

Match the events to the years in which they took place.

Spain joined NATO.	●	●	1982
King Juan Carlos I succeeded Franco.	●	●	2002
Spain entered the EEC.	●	●	1977
Adolfo Suárez appointed Prime Minister.	●	●	1978
Franco died.	●	●	1975
Constitution approved by referendum.	●	●	1986
First democratic elections in Spain in 40 years.	●	●	1976
Spain officially entered the Eurozone.	●	●	1975

 LIVEWORKSHEETS