

Synthesis of sentences activity

Combine these pairs of sentences by making the second one into a relative clause.

- a. Mr. Black has a large dog. It guards his house.

- b. Sally helped the boy. He thanked her.

- c. I have lost my favorite necklace. It was a present from my aunt.

- d. The Nile is the longest River in the world. It is in Africa.

- e. We gave some food to the children. The children looked hungry.

- f. Tom would not climb the ladder. He is afraid of heights.

- g. They stayed at the Grand Hotel. It is in the town centre.

- h. Our neighbor offered to look after our pets. He likes animals.

Rewrite each of these pairs of simple sentences as a compound or complex sentence, using a different conjunction each time.

- a. The front tyre of my bicycle was flat. I pumped it up.

- b. Bring a swimsuit. We may go swimming.

- c. The car stopped. A smartly dressed man got out.

- d. uncle Jack is afraid of flying. He never travels by air.

e. Tom pushed the door. It did not open.

f. Mary entered the race. She knew she would not win.

g. Should I glue the pieces together? Should I use sticky tape instead?

h. David's alarm Clock went off. He left out of bed.
