THE SURFING DOG!

The last World Dog Surfing Championships, organised in San Francisco Bay, were won by Nico, the labrador. The judges <sup>1</sup>(give)  him the highest scores for confidence and style. After the victory, Nico's owner, Mark, was asked how he <sup>2</sup>(teach)  his dog to surf. The answer is, he <sup>3</sup>(not/teach)  him at all! Nico <sup>4</sup>(learn)  to surf by observing Mark, who is a surfer himself. One day the dog just <sup>5</sup>(jump)  on the board and off he went!

Mark <sup>6</sup>(always/know)  that his dog was very intelligent so he <sup>7</sup>(want)  Nico to be a service dog*. Unfortunately, the dog was a poor student and <sup>8</sup>(not/want)  to learn the necessary tricks. Then, Mark <sup>9</sup>(come up with)  another idea. He <sup>10</sup>(notice)  that people loved watching videos showing Nico surfing, so he <sup>11</sup>(decide)  to use it to earn money which he could give to people in need. Mark invited a disabled person to surf with Nico and <sup>12</sup>(shoot)  a short video. Although the dog <sup>13</sup>(be)  a poor student before, he <sup>14</sup>(be)  an excellent surfing companion! He <sup>15</sup>(give)  confidence to the person surfing with him on the same board. The video <sup>16</sup>(go)  viral! And Nico and Mark have already donated over $20,000 to charity.

* A service dog is a dog trained to help people with disabilities (for example people who have problems with their sight, hearing or movement).
