

PRACTICE 19. 1C Identifying Intervening

Read each sentence. Then, write the intervening phrase or clause between the subject and verb in each sentence.

EXAMPLE My painting for the art show was not quite finished.

ANSWER My painting for the art show was not quite finished.

1. The planting of the new trees took place yesterday.
2. The singers as well as the dancers worked very hard on the show.
3. Math, like history, is an interesting subject.
4. The neighbor across the street grows roses.
5. Two students in my school wrote a play.
6. New York, despite its crowded streets, is fun to visit.
7. Her team, including the coaches, had pizza after the game.
8. My sisters, who live all over the country, get together once a year.
9. The rehearsals for the concert began at eight o'clock.
10. The picnic feast that we brought tasted delicious.